

These organisations work for children's interests in New Zealand.

They provide services or information to almost every family in New Zealand.

In the interests of children and families, they all support the Crimes (Substituted section 59) Amendment Bill sponsored by Sue Bradford and recommended by the majority of the Justice and Electoral Select Committee.

This bill is not anti-family or anti-parent. Rather, it will in time lead to many New Zealand children having more positive childhoods.

The following organisations wish to congratulate the politicians who are voting for this bill.
